CINCINNATI, Jan. 27.—The first annual dinner of the Ohio Commandery of the Military Order of the Loyal Legion of the United States, which will be given at the

Burnt House on Wednesday, February 6, promises to be in every way a notable affair. One year ago next month the Ohio

Commandery was instituted, and in honor of that event a magnificent dinner was served by the Burnt House to the Commandery and visiting friends. The dinner was attended by members of the Order from Philadelphia, Boston, New York, and other Eastern cities, who came out in a special car, and one and all were loud in their praise of the entertainment given them, and are yet talking about the superb dinner served by the Burnt House.

The dinner to be given on the 6th of next month, commemorating the first anniver-

as that of last year, and, in many re-

Rowell said: "I found him in the bed room and tried to put pepper in his eyes, but he was such a big fellow I could not reach around him. He got up and came for me, and I was afraid he would get hold of me, so I commenced shooting at him. He ran dove down, and I followed shooting the pistol was emptied. At the foot of the stairs I struck at him with the slung shot, and thought I had knocked him down. I did not then know I had hit him with a bullet. There were no ladies in the court room is the morning.

The court room was crowded again in the afternoon. Palmer's cross-examination was continued. One Palmer came into their office and found Rowell crying and saying to himself: "She was such a pretty woman. Rowell was a kind and loving man to his family. He took great pains in creating the new house and accepted his wife's suggestions regarding the plan. Palmer said that he suggested to Rowell that the letter box be watched and that Lynch that night visited the new house. He was a powerful man, and an-less Rowell was armed, he might crush him. Palmer also explained to the prisoner how to make a slung shot of stone and stocking, saying it was more effective than a club. Rowell sold his share in the paper box factory for $1,000. He had no other property except his house, which he partly purchased with money received from the factory.

Rowell sits with his back to the judge and face to the audience, and endeavors to pay no attention to what is going on. The children have not been in court all today. Mrs. Rowell is still at the Washburn

House and does not go to court, and the hardly finish their case to-day, and at the present outlook the trial will last all next week.

Palmer concluded his testimony in the

Rowell case at 4:30 o'clock, after a sharp and exciting cross-examination. He testified that many of Rowell's actions before the time of the shooting led him to believe that Mrs. Rowell was going to report him to the authorities. A reporter

A BEAUTIFUL hammered brass plate, the work of a pupil of Miss Belle Leitch, is on exhibition at Plaster's book store. It has the appearance of being the work of a true artist.

SOME of the most beautiful houses in this country have been constructed of the limestone that is so abundant in this vicinity. It is strange that it is not more generally used for building purposes.

A simple and good rest that can be attached to any rocking chair can be had at Henry Ott's furniture store. It is an roller moves with the chair, and is one of the most comfortable appliances ever invented for the purpose.

The building and soliciting committee of the Southern Presbyterian Church, have met with gratifying success, and it is now an assured fact that a handsome house of worship will be erected by the congregation during next season.

The session last week was the receipt of a letter from Prince Bismark by a citizen of Mayville. It was written in excellent English and referred in kind terms to the relations of the two when they were school boys together in the Fatherland.

FRANK CLOONEY, son of Mr. Thomas Clooney, had his leg broken, on Sunday afternoon, while standing at the corner of Third and Sutton streets, by being run over by a sled. The limb was fractured between the knee and thigh, and was set by Dr. H. K. Adamson.

ABOUT nine o'clock, Saturday night, a colored infant, two months old, was found in the door of Daulton's livery stable by John Davis, colored. Deputy marshal Dawson, on Sunday, arrested Ellen Thompson, who admitted that she was the mother of the child. She says she left it at Daulton's for Jacob Dilts, who, she claims, is its father.

MR. D. A. RICHMONDS, who has given considerable thought to the hog question, has suggested for the consideration of the city council a plan by which it will be possible to collect the tax on hogs which has been almost universally evaded by breeders. He suggests that the council shall require each owner to designate his hog, or hogs, by some particular mark, and to make an artificial ear of a hog, to be deposited with the proper city official with the said mark entered thereon and inscribed with the owner's name. Should there be an increase the owner's name should also be so marked and the number reported and entered on the record. In this way the ownership of any hog in the city could be established and the full amount of the tax collected. All hogs found running at large unmarked should be taken up and sold and the money so received expended among the poor. The plan is not a bad one and might be profitably adopted by the city.

PERSONALS.

Mrs. Samuel B. Poynts is visiting at Covington.

Miss Merriweather, of Louisville, is visiting Mrs. Emma January.

Miss Anna Berry, of Elizaville, is visiting the family of Mr. Henry Hubbard.

Rev. Henry M. Scudder and wife, of Elizaville, will celebrate their silver wedding January 31st.

Miss Emma B. Hauke, after a visit of several weeks to relatives in Ripley, O., has returned home.

Mr. J. A. Simonds and family, of Boston, are visiting Mr. George T. Simonds, of the Central Hotel.

MR. D. H. HENKINER will leave next Wednesday on his usual spring visit to New York and Baltimore to secure the new styles of clothing. It has been the habit of this firm for many years to have their clothing made to order expressly for this trade and to use only the best and latest style fabrics. It is hardly necessary to say that the spring opening will be well worth waiting for, as we are informed some of the prices offered will be very sensational.

AN old maid, Jane Catherine Payne, was married in Martinsburg, W. Va., to Mrs. Annie Hinton. The groom has recently donated male apparel, and explains that physicians said there was no doubt of her perfect masculinity.

ABERDEEN ITEMS.

AN addition of fifteen to the church Thursday night.

Died—on Thursday night, a son of David McFarland, colored.

Several of our workmen were unable to cross the river Friday morning on account of the fog and ice.

Mr. Charles Bains' hen roost was depredated the other night. But owing to the timely arrival of the rooster, the thief was taken in one hand and "quite housey's" young cackler in the other.

We notice a great deal of swearing amongst our young men and boys (ourselves included). Now is the time of the most pernicious habit on earth. To the refined it is vulgar; to the christian it is ungodly; to the world in general it is disgusting. What more shocking as if his very life depended on it, a young man should utter in a given time. To the young boys we will say it does not make you look manly, and to the older ones it shows your lack of moral and patriotic instincts.

Departed this life on Friday morning at 7:30, Mrs. J. M. Cane, wife of Mr. Cane, was one of our pioneer citizens, a man liked and respected by all. He came from this part of the world beyond, and led us hope he is with him who grants life to the happy eternal life, beyond this mortal vale to those who love and do his bidding.

THE Boller in Ingersoll. Ingersoll has excited the amateur thinkers, as he does wherever he goes. It may be put down as a broad proposition that a man who believes in Ingersoll does not know much. His smartness only appeals to the lowest order of intellect. No really bright man would be fooled by his hotch potch of allusion and jokes about things he does not understand. He can burlesque a man, but he cannot understand it.

Professor W. C. Houston, of the University of Mississippi, has a good word to say in favor of the girl student. He says that in the majority of cases she is wiser and better able to acquire knowledge than the boy student; that her mind is generally speaking, quicker, brighter, more alert than that of man at the same age—between twelve and twenty.

It is wise to provide against emergencies that are liable to arise in every family. A cold may be a dangerous thing or not, depending upon the means at hand to combat it. In sudden attacks of cold, croup, asthma, etc., Ayer's Cherry Pectoral will prove the quickest and most effective cure, and your best friend.

Prices Reduced.

I am offering my winter stock of hats at 25 and 50 cents to close out, and also a large stock of winter millinery goods at equally low prices. For bargains call early.

MISS MATTIE CARR.

George Andrews, overseer in the Lowell Carpet Corporation, was, for over twenty years before his removal to Lowell, afflicted with salt rheum in its worst form. His ulcerations actually covered more than half the surface of his body and limbs. He was entirely cured by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. See certificate in Ayer's Almanac for 1883.

For seven years Allen's Brain Food has stood the strongest tests as to its merits in curing nervousness, nervous debility and restoring lost powers to the weakened generative system, and, in no instance, has it ever failed; it cost $1.6 for $5—At drugists, or by mail from J. H. Allen, 315 First Avenue, New York City.

Will's World Wonder Candy is not an untrue quack remedy or experiment; it is the regular prescription put up in an attractive form. It is a specific done up so that any child will eat it without any trouble and you will know what will be the result. Physicians will tell you to use it for it is the best medicine for worms ever given.

Of the many remedies before the public for nervous debility and weakness of nerve system, there is none equal to Allen's Brain Food, which promptly and permanently restores all lost vigor; it never fails. $1 a package, or for $5—at drugists or by mail from J. H. Allen, 315 First Avenue, New York City.

The Price of Beauty would never have been valued to Venus if her teeth had been yellow. Frail mortals, unlike the deities of fable, have perishable teeth, but these they may retain unimpaired to an advanced age, if they will use soap-dent, which keeps teeth free from impurities which destroy them and renders them objects of admiration. It is pure, refreshing, leaves an agreeable flavor in the mouth, and sweetens the breath.

AN Unsubdued Bleeding.

About thirty years ago prominent physician by the name of Dr. William Hall discovered, or produced after long experimental research, a remedy for diseases of the throat, chest and lungs, which was of such wonderful efficacy that it soon gained a wide reputation in this country. The name of the medicine is Dr. William Hall's Balsam for the Lungs, and may be safely relied on as a speedy and positive cure for coughs, colds, sore throat, etc.
